

PAUL THE KID

ARTIST BIO

Paul The Kid is an extremely diverse artist, combining an eclectic mix of contemporary genres with prominent themes of hip hop, dance, and reggae to create absolute bangers.

Drawing inspiration from 'Oliver Tree', 'Mac Miller' & 'Louis Cole', his shows generate an eccentric energy that invites the audience to get involved in the party.

Having been the founding member/lead singer of successful New Zealand Fun-Punk group 'Night Gaunts', Paul is no stranger to the stage. He has performed hundreds of shows worldwide including New Zealand the United Kingdom, and Europe along with organising two headlining tours across America. Some festival highlights include Boomtown Fair festival 2018, Illusive festival 2019, local London festival Level Up! Fest and Auckland City Limits.

Paul The Kid has also independently released his two EPs TWO TONE DEATH WAVE and Swimming Through the Milky Way as well as his three latest dancey singles (Two Hats, WYD, Palm Trees & Ciggies). He was also recently broadcast on Australia's renowned Triple J radio station. After nearly three years in London Paul is based back in Auckland, New Zealand. With clean air and a fresh outlook, Paul The Kid is poised to release brand new music, perform an all new set, and push his unique brand of the off beat sound to dance floors and fields around

contact@paulthekid.com

paulthekid.com